IT IS TIME TO GET COLD, HARD FACTS

In general popular interest, in issues at stake; in effect upon the future welfare and prosperity of the country, the present campaign for the election of president is the most important since the civil war.

This is the first campaign in which New Mexico voters have been permitted to ballot for president. As an intelligent voter you want to know the exact situation. You do not want partisan statements. You do not want news that is colored and biased and written to mislead and deceive. You want facts just as they occur, so that you may judge for yourself and judge fairly and intelligently.

The Albuquerque Evening Herald, an independent newspaper, proposes to give you the facts—all of them—just as they occur, without bias or color of any kind. It is the business of the Herald to give the news, all of it, while it is news—in the fairest, cleanest, most accurate form.

We want you to give the Evening Herald a thorough trial, and to that end we offer you the newspaper for three months for $1. The regular rate is 50c a month. This three months' special subscription will carry you through the campaign. You get not only every detail of the national campaign; but you get fair, clean-cut reports of the election in New Mexico—the full leased wire telegraphic report of the Associated Press covering the world and a New Mexico news service that is absolutely complete.

This offer is open to you until August 1st. Take it today. You will get more for this dollar than for any other you ever spent. Fill out the blank and mail it today. The paper starts on receipt of your dollar.
Albuquerque, N. M.

Send me the Herald for 3 months from date, for which find enclosed $1.
